GIKART INTERNATIONAL PVT LTD

is launching a new venture called GIKART.IN, which is an upcoming direct selling e-commerce platform. GIKART focuses on providing valuable health care products that have been developed through continuous scientific monitoring and experiments using innovative technology. These products are designed to support a healthy lifestyle and protect against diseases that have evolved over time.

One of the notable features of GIKART is its own research and development center. This center is staffed by a team of Ayurveda scientists and doctors who contribute to the development of the products. GIKART's product offerings span various categories, including Home Care, Personal Care, Herbal Cosmetics, Wellness, and Fast-Moving Consumer Goods (FMCG). These products are meticulously tested and evaluated before being distributed to customers, ensuring both quality and effectiveness.

GIKART's commitment to quality and health is demonstrated through its rigorous testing process, involving months of use and evaluation. This ensures that the products meet the highest standards of quality and are genuinely beneficial to users. The integration of advanced technology further enhances the effectiveness of these products.

In summary, GIKART INTERNATIONAL PVT LTD's new venture, GIKART, is an innovative direct selling e-commerce platform that offers a range of health care products developed through scientific monitoring, experiments, and advanced technology. The products span various categories and are backed by a team of Ayurveda scientists and doctors, as well as a strong focus on quality and user benefits.
